Not long ago, in regal pomp and state, Napoleon s brother own d this fine estate; To limits circumscribed around his home, Lucien self-exiled, was allow d to roam. Napoleon--ambition s lofty son! How didst thou fall! undoing and undone--Thy whelming power o erstrain d its mighty aim, And left thee nothing--nothing, but-- a name! At St. Helena exil d and forlorn, Behold the Heko, from his honours torn: No bay or laurel bound his brow withal, No--there he found a winding sheet and pall! In yonder nook, ueath willows weeping bend, With foreign earth his mould ring ashes blend. A spray I ve seen, pluek d from the warrior s tomb, By one, who sought this niche of regal doom. Ambition s sons! revert your greedy eyes, And see how little--little--is the prize! Mere...
