Excerpt: .to the spiritual and eternal welfare of those who are his children through faith! The latter will readily adopt the following lines: --How cheering, my God, is thy voice of compassion, Which soft as the summer s dew falls on the mind; Which whispers the tidings of life and salvation, And casts the dark shadows of sorrow behind. O yes! I have known it, when, kindly and cheering, It hush d the hoarse thunders of justice to rest; It was heard, and the angel of mercy appearing, Pour d the balm of relief o er the penitent s breast. D And still may I hear it, while crossing life s ocean, Or borne on the billow, or breathed in the gale; Enkindling the flame of expiring devotion, And utt ring the promise that never shall fail. Tis the still voice of Him who expired...
