Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a Saga in which you will get intertwined in your feelings. Everything from life, love, infidelity, murder and death is explored as seen through the eyes of Eliza Ma Koi MacDougal. A young feisty teen who was forced to grow up fast due to the death of the first man who ever loved her. Yes, her dad. She then watches as her mother spirals out of control as she chases her crack demons. Forced to grow up fast and take reigns of the household and younger siblings to try and keep them out the Foster Care System she meets and falls in love with a nineteen year old man named Griffin, who is four and a half years her senior. He loves young Koi in his own twisted way but makes no secret of his wifey, an older more sophisticated hood chick who bumps heads with Koi a lot. Koi takes it all in stride however and turns to boosting clothes as a way to help contribute to the household income...
