The morning s meeting was announced to commence at half-past ten o clock. By the specified time nearly the whole of the morning s congregation had assembled; and although it was not so large as that of the afternoon, the Assembly Room of the Free Trade Hall was on this occasion tolerably well filled with Latter-day Saints. It was evident that, with scarcely an exception, those preaent were members of the Church, and on their countenances vividly appeared a lively spirit. It was also evident, from the general feelings and signs of the meeting, that the Saints were in expectation of a treat, and disposed to believe that if the good time coming was not actually present, at least one of the good times had come to represent it at the Manchester Pastorate Conference. The morning service opened with the very appropriate hymn beginning...
