With the SAS and Other Animals: A Vet's Experiences During the Dhofar War 1974

By Andrew Higgins

Pen & Sword Books Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, With the SAS and Other Animals: A Vet's Experiences During the Dhofar War 1974, Andrew Higgins, In 1970 at the height of the Cold War, the young Sandhurst-trained Sultan Qaboos of Oman, with secret British military backing, took on the communist rebels in a fierce but little known war. Along with regular British Army and 'contract' officers, the SAS played a key role in this bitterly fought but ultimately successful campaign. The value of winning the 'Hearts and Minds' of the local population was quickly recognised and this is where a select band of Royal Army Veterinary Corps officers came in. The local economy was a primitive one based on agriculture and the author, freshly qualified and, by his own admission, somewhat naive particularly in military matters, found himself solely responsible for the veterinary care of a territory the size of Hungary. Attached to D Squadron, 22 SAS, Andrew Higgins learnt how to respond to the Jebali people's love and concern for their animals who provided their livelihood - goats, camels, sheep, horses, cattle, even bears, hunting birds and pedigree hunting dogs. His first-hand experiences and anecdotes of life dealing...
