Honno Ltd, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Reveals the secret lives that continue behind the scenes at Pemberley, Mansfield Park and elsewhere in England once Jane Austen puts down her pen. If youve ever wished you could dance with Mr Darcy, be whisked off your feet by Mr Wickham or indulge in gossip with the daring Dashwood sisters this is the volume for youthe third collection of tales shortlisted for the Chawton House Library Short Story Award. The twenty stories take as their inspiration minor characters from the famous novels and lesser known works and turn them into heroes and heroines for a new generation. Award winner The Wedding Planner takes the characters from Austens novella Lady Susan and transports them to the 21st century and new modes of communication. Other stories focus on the less well known of the Bennet sisters, Kitty and Lydia, and deceased Mary Price, sister to Fanny. There are tales of George Wickham and Charlotte Collins. Some are contemporary to Austen, others contemporary to current readers. All offer an intriguing insight into the inner lives of one of the worlds most loved authors best-loved works.
