Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Later Aspects of Our New Duties At the celebration of Commemoration Day, in pursuance of previous action by the governing bodies of the University, Cyrus Fogg Brackett, Henry Professor of Physics, made the following presentation: Mr. President: I have the honor to present for the degree of Doctor of Laws the Hon. Whitelaw Reid, Editor of The Tribune. Mr. Reid is a conspicuous example of our better American citizenship, as witness the various positions of influence, honor, and trust which he has worthily occupied. To have served as legislative, war and general correspondent for various influential journals during the stirring times of the Civil War, to have passed rapidly to the Editorship-in-Chief of The Tribune, were enough to give scope to the powers and to satisfy the ambitions of most men. But it was our good fortune that Mr. Reid accepted the mission to France, in 1889, when difficult matters were pending, and that by his wisdom and tact he secured a satisfactory solution of them. More recently he gracefully represented this country at the...
