

Through Animals Eyes True Stories from a Wildlife Sanctuary

By Lynn Marie Cuny

University of North Texas Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 168 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. A Book-of-the-Month Club, Quality Paperback Book Club, and One Spirit Selection. The day we met Cuny was feeding five beautiful yearlings intravenously, who surely would have died from dehydration, while she simultaneously supervised the feeding of skunks, possums, squirrels-you name it. She is selfless and dauntless in her battle to rescue and rehabilitate animals. I feel privileged to know her and serve on her board. There are few better qualified to look through the eyes of an animal. It is a beautiful, touching book. Loretta Swit, actress Heartwarming tales of rescued creatures are presented in this collection of vignettes from a large wildlife rehabilitation center . . . Cunys love for her charges shines through in her stories. -- Booklist Her brief stories are often touching, such as when she describes a young raccoon, rescued from a fire, self-medicating its burned paws with aloe vera plants; or two crab-eating macaques, confined inside a research facility for eighteen years, experiencing the outdoors for the first time. -- Natural History This book deserves a spot on every library shelf along with such nonfiction animal story...
