Silly boy! he is very angry over these marks, but he seems never to learn that honesty is much the best policy. But all the others are so correct that Mrs. MLain feels quite proud of their preparation for the Sabbath-school. On Sunday morning. Mrs. Lee is ready for them in her dining room, and just at the-hour she hears the wagon wheels coming, then Christies voice, and she knows Sam and Eddie are not far off. Alice has the Bible on the table, and the hymn books. This is always her part of the preparation, and she loves to do it, asit makes her feel quite like a woman, older, I dare say, than her mother. The first thing, when they are all seated, is to sing. How children love singing. These would be willing to spend the whole hour so...
