Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Safe Deposit Box Number 4016 I deem myself fortunate in claiming a wide circle of friends among the members of the medical profession. This intimacy has many times resulted in general discussions of investment matters, and I have often been consulted, in a personal rather than a business capacity, by doctor friends who freely expressed to me their ignorance of investment fundamentals and their need of sound advice. As these cases have multiplied in my experience I have been forced to the conclusion, which I find to be very generally shared, that doctors as a class are rather prone to indiscreet investment, and that the losses that necessarily result may be attributed, in nine cases out of ten, either to questionable advice or a reluctance to take the time to learn the principles of sound investment. Naturally there are exceptions to this rule. Moreover, it applies not only to the medical profession, but is pertinent to the other learned professions as well. I cannot help feeling, however, that any work which tends to bring before...
