Excerpt: . . . 11 Promise Act will be reintroduced, and it can provide aid to schools with low graduation rates and target that aid. Middle school intervention, and I mentioned feeder school inter-vention. No plan to address high school dropout crisis would be ef-fective without an adequate middle school intervention to aid the most troubled feeder middle schools and elementary schools and the most troubled high schools. All the research confirms that in sixth through eighth grade this work is essential to ensure success in high school. Studies show that sixth grade students who do not attend school regularly, have poor conduct scores, who fail math or English have only a 10 per-cent chance of graduating on time. Human resources. The Department of Education is making a commitment, a commitment that must be followed through on its diversity, on raising its cultural linguistic competence and capacity of the professional staff from superintendent to principals to teach-ers. And I want to...
