Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Desperate Woman a Novel To this unhappy creature, doubly unhappy and wretched upon that cheerless Saturday night, a name had been bestowed which had become familiar to her. Sometimes in romantic badinage, oftener in sorrowful earnest, as they watched her dainty fingers become marred and blackened with the burnt pieces of wood, the working girls about her had called her Cinderella. It had clung to Myrtle Blake like the fine black dust of the work-room; it had suggested so much of childhood's memories of the famed fairy story, that she had answered to it first with a smile, then with a sigh, and finally with a despairing thought that only the misery and solitude of the Cinderella of fiction would be hers, in a hard struggle for bread for herself and her dying mother. She dropped the box into which she was placing the artist's crayons, started as from a painful reverie, and looked toward the little dark staircase leading into the apartment where she sat. Drella! A girl's voice had pronounced her name, a girl's form crossed her vision. You are wanted, spoke the new-comer, a repressed excitement in her manner, at home. One of your neighbor's boys just brought a message. Myrtle Blake arose to her feet in quick alarm. Even beneath the grime of the dust, her face turned a shade whiter. My mother, she gasped out; she is worse? The girl shook her head quickly and negatively. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
