How can we know, without the aid of reason, that God hath spoken. But, on the other side, is not reason proscribed by the Christian religion 1 Is not the use of reason forbidden, in the examination of the marvellous dogmas, with which we are presented by this religion? Does it not continually exclaim against a profane reason, which it accuses of insufficiency, tmd often regards as rebellious to heaven 1 In order to be capable of judging of divine revelation, we must have a just idea of the Divinity. But, seeing human reason is too weak and groveling to exalt itself to an acquaintance with the Supreme Being, from what source shall we derive that idea, beside revelation itself? Thus revelation itself is to become the proof of the authority of revelation. Let us pass on from this...
