But there is no need to tell the story of the play; the gospel-story needs no retelling here; we know the scenes by heart; we are come to see the play-ers, rather than to listen to a reading of the play. Our interest is centered in Anton Lang, the new Christus of 1900. His face is the ideal face of Christ, as conceived by the Italian Masters, gentle and meek and beautiful, but with no trace of weakness or of effeminacy. A face that had not great strength and character would suffer from the softening influence of this frame of wavy From an official photograph MARY, THE MOTHER OF ESI S hair and beard, beautifully blonde and silken, yet absolutely natural.
