Not illustrated. 1920 Excerpt: .effective from January 1, 1920, and it is likely that the government will sanction their recommendations. The list of the salaries as submitted is: Professors, $5,000; associate professors, $4,500; assistant professors, $3,200 to $4,000; lecturers, $2,400 to $3,000; assistants, $1,000 to $1,800; demonstrators, $1,000 to $1,200. Each member of the faculty of Colgate University has received a check for $200 from the Colgate University Alumni Corporation. The letter accompanying the gift states that the gift is an appreciation for service and loyalty to Colgate. A Recent ruling of the trustees of Cornell University allows students studying medicine to take the first year s work at the Medical College in New York instead of at Ithaca as hitherto. The change was made on the recommendation of the medical faculty. The Journal of Education reports that the Kansas teachers and the school children of the state had the best attention from the special session of the legislature that has been given them in many years. Both branches of the legislature went on record for decent salaries for teachers and to enable the local school boards to provide better buildings and better equipment for the schools. The bill provides for a fifty per cent increase in the tax levies for school purposes in all grades of the schools. The country school districts, the city grades and the high schools, city and country, all come in for the increased maintenance budget. This will enable the school boards to provide not...
