Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reminiscences of the Last Sixty-Five Years, Vol. 2 of 2: Commencing With the Battle of Lexington; Also, Sketches of Hos Own Life and Times There is no faculty of the mind, in my opinion, so important as a good memory; in fact, without it, we learn but little, and retain but a small portion of that; how far I am possessed of that faculty these Reminiscences must decide. Circumstances of a domestic character I remember from the age of less than two years and a half; the first thing of general interest is the extraordinary deep snow in January, 1780, a period long remembered for the severity of the cold, as well as the depth of the snow, which was six feet deep upon a level. The severity and suffering of that winter, can never be forgotten while there survives a soldier of that army who were exposed to its inclemency, half fed, and worse clothed, fighting for that freedom we now enjoy, unmindful of its cost. There is no parallel to their sufferings, except...
